Position Overview and Representative Duties:

The Paralegal is a member of the Clerk's Office located in the National Courts Building, 717 Madison Place, NW, Washington, D.C. The incumbent performs a variety of duties including assisting the court by independently responding to inquiries from parties regarding cases, finalizing documents for filing, independently reviewing and responding to motions, generating statistical reports, researching legal questions, and preparing memoranda.

No relocation expenses will be paid.

General Experience:

- Review legal documents submitted to the court for completeness and accuracy. Respond to questions related to the status and scheduling of cases. Conduct legal research using source material or the internet. Compose and prepare routine correspondence, procedural orders, and documents that may require substantial research or analysis. Identify emergency or unique matters and undertake special handling requirements.
- Track and monitor calendars, filings, hearings, etc. Review daily reports (electronic and paper) to identify new filings. Monitor compliance with court orders, initiate appropriate action as necessary.
- Maintain court unit's information storage and filing systems (electronic and paper) for case filings, correspondence, publications, data, forms, and other documents.
- File orders, notices, and opinions in the court's electronic filing system. Create and update templates and standard documents for orders, motions, and other related documents.
- Monitor deadlines, prioritize tasks, and determine need for action by the judge or court attorneys. Prepare necessary documents. Compose non-routine documents that require substantial research and analysis. Proofread documents and check citations before submission to judge or before filing under own signature. Monitor caseload, organize filings and correspondence related to cases, log motions and other actions, and update the case list. Compile and arrange information and data and prepare required periodic reports regarding court and non-court activities.
- Respond to advanced questions related to court practices. In the absence of (or in lieu of) other employees, perform the duties typically performed by courtroom deputy, calendar clerk, electronic court recorder operator and duplicator, and case administrator.

- Perform legal research and analysis and communicate results to parties or judges orally or in writing; draft recommendations for resolution.

The successful candidate must be a self-starter as well as detail-oriented. Candidate must also be highly organized and tactful, possess good judgment, poise and initiative, and maintain a professional appearance and demeanor at all times. Candidate must have strong prioritizing and problem-solving skills, solid communication skills (written & oral) and be able to communicate effectively with persons within the court as well as with persons outside the court. A demonstrated ability to work harmoniously with others in a "team" environment and to exhibit a professional manner at all times is essential.
